

Focusing on what matters most.....how to protect the future of your loved ones.

Estate planning is about deciding who gets what, and for wealthier families it may be about preparing for death taxes. But there's another aspect of estate planning, just as important, that gets less attention. How can wealth be structured and managed so that heirs get more than a one-time windfall? What does it take to turn wealth into a long-term financial resource?

It takes a trust. How can our Trust services provide that protection?

A trust agreement can be written to provide protection for your assets during your life, and can be structured to provide that protection for the future of your family.

We provide a variety of services in managing clients' assets. We also provide services that are more of a personal nature, which is very important to our clients and to us. We are a community bank who cares about our clients and we strive to exceed their expectations.

Call us and let's discuss.
