

THE Farmers Bank

Estate Administration

Estate administration can be confusing. Many factors should be considered when choosing an executor for your estate. Some of those factors are:

- The expertise needed to manage your assets
- The proper distribution of your property
- The ability to understand and file estate taxes
- The experience and education needed to abide by the terms of your will or trust plan
- The ability to remain neutral and objective when making potentially emotional decisions

The staff of The Farmers Bank Trust and Asset Management Division is highly experienced in all areas of estate administration. We welcome the opportunity to put our experience to work for you.

Call us and let's discuss.
