

Who should settle your estate?

Choosing an executor to handle your estate is an important decision. You can choose between naming an individual, and naming a corporate executor such as The Farmers Bank. Why would you choose us? As a corporate executor, we are experienced, professional, and impartial. We are always available and provide continuous service to carry out the directions in your will. We have trained specialists able to provide all of the services needed to settle an estate. Only through the designation of a professional corporate executor can you be certain of the degree of permanence that estate settlement requires.
